

„BEST OF BARTUSCHKA“

Mime Comedy

Duration: from 30 to 90 min

Welcome to the world of (almost nonverbal) comedy: BARTUSCHKA, the ultimate slovakian Long Distance Pantomime World Champion, switches effortlessly between characters, genders and situations - almost faster than your laughter. The female mime clown presents grotesque episodes from medieval as well as modern times and is not afraid of embedding one or two or even more spectators in her performance on stage.

In „Best Of Bartuschka“ the artist performs her most catchy theatrical and variety acts: a promising liaison of speedy comic pantomime and visual poetry. You'll get a minimized yet still funny version of "Brokeback Mountain", a parody dealing with Rapunzel's true story and some insight into metropolitan survival strategies. There's only a thin line between classical entertainment and a sarcastic reality soap here. Also to be seen: a sardonic ballet teacher, human transmutations and a singing nymphomaniac.

If you're lucky, you'll leave this show with a real cake as well as with an aching stomach. Hopefully it's aching because you've laughed so much!
